Settle In And Stay Awhile

Welcome to The Hotel Monroe, a place where traveling souls and lifelong friends gather to taste the comfort, class, and culture of Northeast Louisiana.

While you're here, you're one of us. Pull up a chair and grab a glass—cheers to Southern comforts.

Steeped in history and Southern charm, The Hotel Monroe's story began in 1891 as the Sugar Brothers Grocery and Opera House. Over the decades, it transformed into a hardware store, poolside shop, and later, the Star Hotel in the 1920s.

Today, we have lovingly restored this historic space into a boutique hotel that celebrates the rich heritage of Northeast Louisiana. Every detail has been thoughtfully designed to honor the past while offering modern comfort and hospitality.

Whether you're visiting for a special occasion or a relaxing getaway, Hotel Monroe offers a timeless escape with a story to tell.
